Governor Lesetja Kganyago

The Governor of the South African Reserve Bank, Lesetja Kganyago, was unanimously elected to the office of Chancellor of Stellenbosch University (SU) on 24 January 2025. A recipient of an honorary doctorate (Doctor of Commerce, honoris causa) from Stellenbosch University, Governor Kganyago is the 16th Chancellor of SU.

Governor Kganyago was appointed Governor of the South African Reserve Bank with effect from 9 November 2014. The Governor was reappointed by the President for a third five-year term effective 9 November 2024.

He had been a Deputy Governor of the South African Reserve Bank since May 2011. In this role, he was responsible for a wide range of areas, including research, financial stability, bank supervision, financial regulatory reform (including introducing the Twin Peaks regulatory structure), financial surveillance (including taking responsibility for the regulation of cross-border flows), risk management and compliance, and what was then called the South African Reserve Bank College (now the South African Reserve Bank Academy).

Governor Kganyago has more than 20 years of experience in formulating and implementing public policy, having spent this time in both the central bank and National Treasury. He has wide-ranging experience in macroeconomic policy, financial sector policy, public finance, international finance, public debt management and financial markets. During his tenure as Director-General of National Treasury, he successfully steered several public finance and financial market reforms. He played a leading role in the fundamental reform of the microstructure of domestic bond markets, including reforms to the auction system and the introduction of new financial instruments such as inflation-linked bonds, buy-backs, switches and Separate Trading of Registered Interest and Principal Securities (STRIPS). During his time at National Treasury, a fundamental reform in the management of the national debt portfolio was completed.

Governor Kganyago has led South Africa's technical team to various G20 Ministers of Finance and Central Bank Governors meetings and summits, including the Inaugural Summit in 2008. He has chaired the IMF/World Bank Development Committee Deputies and the G20 Working Group on IMF Governance Reform; he was also the vice-chair of the Financial Stability Board's Standing Committee on Standards Implementation for a period of four years.

Currently, Governor Kganyago chairs the Committee of Central Bank Governors of the Southern African Development Community and is the co-chair of the Financial Stability Board's Regional Consultative Group for Sub-Saharan Africa. He also chaired the Financial Stability Board's Standing Committee on Standards Implementation. He now chairs the Financial Stability Board's Central Bank Governance Group.

He was appointed as the International Monetary and Financial Committee (IMFC) Chairman, effective 18 January 2018 for a period of three years until 17 January 2021. The IMFC, comprising finance ministers and central bank governors, is the primary advisory body of the IMF Board of Governors and deliberates on the principal policy issues facing the IMF.

Governor Kganyago holds a Master of Science degree in Development Economics from London University and a Bachelor of Commerce degree in Accounting and Economics from the University of South Africa.

President Lesetja Kganyago is met ingang van 9 November 2014 as president van die Suid-Afrikaanse Reserwebank aangestel. Hy is deur pres Cyril Ramaphosa heraangestel vir 'n derde termyn van vyf jaar, wat op 9 November 2024 begin het.

Hy was sedert Mei 2011 'n adjunkpresident van die Suid-Afrikaanse Reserwebank. Hy was in hierdie rol verantwoordelik vir 'n wye verskeidenheid gebiede, insluitende navorsing, finansiële stabiliteit, banktoesig, hervorming van finansiëlesektor-regulering (insluitende die bekendstelling van die Twin Peaks- regulatoriese struktuur), finansiële toesig (insluitende die neem van verantwoordelikheid vir die regulering van oorgrens-geldvloei), risikobestuur en nakoming, en wat toe bekend gestaan het as die Suid-Afrikaanse Reserwebank-kollege (nou die Suid-Afrikaanse Reserwebank-akademie).

President Kganyago het meer as 20 jaar ondervinding in die formulering en implementering van openbare beleid, aangesien hy hierdie tyd in die sentrale bank en die nasionale tesourie deurgebring het. Hy het wye ervaring in makro-ekonomiese beleid, finansiëlesektor-beleid, openbare finansies, internasionale finansies, openbare skuldbestuur en finansiële markte. Hy het gedurende sy ampstermyn as direkteur-generaal van die nasionale tesourie verskeie hervormings van openbare finansies en finansiële markte suksesvol bestuur. Hy het 'n leidende rol in die fundamentele hervorming van die mikrostruktuur van binnelandse effektemarkte gespeel, insluitende hervormings aan die veilingstelsel en die bekendstelling van nuwe finansiële instrumente soos inflasiegekoppelde effekte, terugkope, omskakelings en afsonderlike verhandeling van geregistreerde rente en hofoffekte. In sy tyd by die nasionale tesourie is 'n fundamentele hervorming in die bestuur van die nasionale skuldportefeulje voltooi.

As president van die Reserwebank het president Kganyago Suid-Afrika se tegniese span na verskeie G20-vergaderings en berade van ministers van finansies en presidente van sentrale banke, insluitende die heel eerste beraad in 2008, gelei. Hy was voorsitter van die IMF/Wêreldbank-ontwikkelingskomitee van afgevaardigdes en die G20-werkgroep oor IMF-bestuurs hervorming; hy was ook vir 'n tydperk van vier jaar die ondervoorsitter van die Raad op Finansiële Stabiliteit se staande komitee oor standarde-implementering.

President Kganyago is tans voorsitter van die komitee van sentralebank-presidente van die Suider-Afrikaanse Ontwikkelingsgemeenskap en hy is die medevoorsitter van die Raad op Finansiële Stabiliteit se streekskonsultasiegroep vir Afrika suid van die Sahara. Hy was ook voorsitter van die Raad op Finansiële Stabiliteit se staande komitee oor standarde-implementering. Hy is nou voorsitter van die Raad op Finansiële Stabiliteit se sentralebank-bestuursgroep.

Hy het van 18 Januarie 2018 tot 17 Januarie 2021 as die Internasionale Monetêre en Finansiële Komitee (IMFK) se voorsitter gedien. Die IMFK, bestaande uit ministers van finansies en sentralebank-presidente, is die primêre adviesliggaam van die IMF-presidentsraad en beraadslaag oor die belangrikste beleidskwessies wat die IMF in die gesig staar.

President Kganyago het 'n meestersgraad in Ontwikkelingseconomie van die Universiteit van Londen en 'n Baccalaureusgraad in die Handel in Rekeningkunde en Ekonomie van die Universiteit van Suid-Afrika.
