There is no excuse for racism

THE most crude and aggressive racism that is ongoing is being perpetrated by the trashing of paintings of former university vice-chancellors, the defacing of statues and the anti-Afrikaans campaign at the University of Stellenbosch and Pretoria.

Whatever excuse is being used to claim that it is an anti-colonialist campaign is mere bluff.

These racist actions are massively organised and co-ordinated.

They can be likened to the anti-Semitic campaigns. These campaigns are also punted at some universities.

The EFF are as blatantly racist, but what can one expect from them?

If the president is serious about curbing racism let us see his active response.
