Postgraduate student in residence	(R7 665 + R9 625)	R17 290

2. NO OUTSTANDING FEES AT REGISTRATION (CURRENT STUDENTS)

Kindly note that all outstanding amounts must be settled before a student will be allowed to register for 2015.

3. MODES OF PAYMENT OF STUDENT ACCOUNTS

Student accounts can be settled within the following two modes of payment:

Option 1: Payment in three instalments

AT REGISTRATION	Compulsory first instalment of Study and Accommodation Fees
31 MAY	At least 75% of total account, taking into consideration the fees that has been paid at registration.
30 SEPTEMBER	The outstanding balance of student account.

Option 2: Debit order that consists of the following instalments

AT REGISTRATION	Compulsory first instalment of Study and Accommodation Fees
1 APRIL UP TO AND UNTIL 1 NOVEMBER	A further eight instalments of the debit order are payable on the first day of the month.

Applications for the debit order option close on 10 March. The necessary forms can be obtained from the web or at seand@sun.ac.za

If study fees are paid in full on or before 31 March, a request for a 3% rebate on the tuition fees (subject to conditions as stipulated in Calendar) can be submitted at Student Fees. The prescribed form can be obtained from the web or studentegelde@sun.ac.za

International students, including Namibians, are liable for the full tuition fees on the day of registration.

4. ACTIVATION OF STUDENT CARD FOR 2015

Student cards can only be issued / re-activated once the 2014 student account is settled in full and the first instalment for study and housing fees reflects on the student account.

Blocks may only be lifted for the activation of a student card if the 2014 student account is settled in full and the student can provide proof of the following:

1. An External bursary (not SU) indicating the costs that will be covered by the funder on the letterhead of the funder with their e-mail address and contact details. SU bursary students do not need to provide a letter and can activate their cards directly after registration.
2. An official policy that will be paid out in the 2015 academic year and that will cover at least the first compulsory instalment.
3. A loan (e.g. Bank loan, Eduloan or Helpmekaar study loan) where the loan amount is sufficient to cover at least first compulsory instalment, also indicating the date of payment.
4. If the bursary, loan or policy of a student is not sufficient to cover the full first compulsory instalment and a student can provide proof that they did apply for a study loan, then the following down payment arrangement can be made:
 - a. The first compulsory instalment (study and housing fees) can be settled in equal instalments by no later than 31 March.
 - b. The first instalment is payable immediately. The block will only be lifted once the first instalment reflects on the student account and the completed form is processed by Student fees.
 - c. If a payment arrangement is made in January the equal instalments are:

• Undergraduate student	R3 504 x 3 (January to March)
• Postgraduate student	R2 555 x 3 (January to March)
• Undergraduate residence student	R6 713 x 3 (January to March)
• Postgraduate residence student	R5 764 x 3 (January to March)
 - d. If a payment arrangement is made in February the equal instalments are:

• Undergraduate student	R5 256 x 2 (February to March)
• Postgraduate student	R3 833 x 2 (February to March)
• Undergraduate residence student	R10 069 x 2 (February to March)
• Postgraduate residence student	R 8 645 x 2 (February to March)

The payment arrangement form will only be available on request in January 2015 at Student Fees and is subjected to approval from the division.
