

Call for Applications

African Classics Network Workshop and Classical Association of South Africa Conference, November 2023 Stellenbosch and Cape Town, South Africa

We have pleasure in inviting applications for an African Classics Network Workshop to be co-hosted by Stellenbosch and Oxford Universities through the generous funding of an Africa Oxford (AfOx) Catalyst Grant. The workshop will be held in Stellenbosch, South Africa, from 20-22 November 2023 and participants will also join a round table discussion at the Classical Association of South Africa Conference (CASA) hosted by the University of Cape Town in Cape Town, 23-25 November (<https://casa-kvsa.org.za/events/order-and-chaos/>). We invite applicants from African countries to apply for this funding opportunity. The three awardees' flights to South Africa, visas, airport transfers, and 5 days accommodation and certain meals/events will be covered by the grant.

Please send 1. a CV including your current institution/position/stage of career, and 2. a short abstract for a 20 minute paper to be offered at the workshop and CASA. Please email these to: masters@sun.ac.za before 15 August 2023. Please use the email header African Classics Network Workshop, November 2023 when making your application.

With best regards

Samantha Masters (Stellenbosch University) and Stephen Harrison (Oxford University)
