

Web Portals

A web portal or gateway is a classified collection of links to other web pages.

- Maria Pantelia's Electronic Resources for Classicists (<http://www.tlg.uci.edu/index/resources.html>) - one of the most comprehensive portals for Classics that also contains links to several other portal.
  - University of Chicago Classics Resources (<http://classics.uchicago.edu/resources>) - contains many interesting links.
  - Ancient World WWW Sites (<http://www.kchanson.com/LINKS/ancweb.html>) - not recently updated, but contains wide variety of links.
  - Diotima Women & Gender in the Ancient World (<http://www.stoa.org/diotima/>) - contains information about much more than just women!
  - Egyptology Resources (<http://www.fitzmuseum.cam.ac.uk/er/>) - contains a wide variety of links about Ancient Egypt.
  - Lifestyles of Ancient Egyptians (<http://personaldividends.com/lifestyles-of-ancient-egyptians/>) - provides a comprehensive collection of sources and links on the Ancient Egyptian World.
  - New Testament Gateway (<http://ntgateway.com>) - excellent portal for New Testament Studies and related fields.
  - Resource Pages for Biblical Studies (<http://torreys.org/bible/>) - contains int. al. links to sources about the social world of the ancient Mediterranean.
  - Rutgers University Virtual Religion Index (<http://virtualreligion.net/vri/>) - offers a large collection of links to Internet sources on religious topics, including Ancient Near Eastern, Greek and Roman religions, as well as the Hebrew Bible and the New Testament.
  - ABZU (<http://www.etana.org/abzubib>) - contains a large collection of sources (including the complete texts of books) on the Ancient Near East.
-

Web databases/encyclopedias

Under this heading may be included websites containing a variety of textual and visual material.

- De imperatoribus Romanis (<http://www.luc.edu/roman-emperors/>) - a comprehensive encyclopedia of Roman emperors and related information.
- Holy Land Photos (<http://www.holylandphotos.org>) - a classified photo collection of the Biblical world.
- The Beazley Archive (Oxford) (<http://www.beazley.ox.ac.uk/index.htm>) - excellent collection of Greek art.
- New Pauly Online (Brill' 's New Pauly) (Stellenbosch University library > Databases > N >) - up to date and authoritative encyclopedia on the ancient world.
- Logeion (<http://logeion.uchicago.edu/>) - Greek and Latin online dictionary.

Texts and translations:

- Perseus Digital Library (<http://www.perseus.tufts.edu/hopper/>) - Greek and Latin texts, original and translation; studies; reference works.
- Thesaurus linguae graecae (TLG) (Stellenbosch University library > Databases > T >) - almost complete database of ancient Greek texts up to Byzantine period; dictionaries; complex searches.
- Packard Humanities Institute (PHI) Latin texts (<http://latin.packhum.org/>) - classical Latin texts; includes Word search and Concordance.
- Suda Online (<http://www.stoa.org/sol/>) - Byzantine encyclopedia on ancient authors and topics; translation and Greek; search on topics.
- Etana (<http://www.etana.org/>) - Ancient Near Eastern texts; translations.

Fonts:

Greek and Hebrew Unicode fonts (<http://www.sbl-site.org/educational/biblicalfonts.aspx>).

---

Bibliographical sources

There are several websites with bibliographical information about specific ancient authors.

The more general sources are the following:

- L'Année philologique (<http://www.annee-philologique.com/>) - an Internet version of the most important bibliographical aid for Classical Studies. Admission is only by subscription, but it is free through the Stellenbosch University Library's website (<http://www.sun.ac.za/library>). Follow the link to Databases and choose L'Année philologique (alphabetised under A).
- Gnomon Online (<http://www.gnomon.ku-eichstaett.de/Gnomon/en/Gnomon.html>) - a selection of the most recent publications on Classics. It can be searched by title or author.
- Tables of Contents of Journals of Interest to Classicists (<http://projects.chass.utoronto.ca/amphoras/tocs.html>) - gives a valuable survey of the table of contents of classical and related journals.
- Propylaeum Virtual library (<http://www.propylaeum.de/>) - books on ancient studies in German libraries.

An example of more specific bibliographies:

- A Hellenistic Bibliography (<http://sites.google.com/site/hellenisticbibliography/home>) - by Martine Cuypers; bibliographical details of studies on Hellenistic Greek poets and the Latin poets influenced by them.
- Online Egyptological Bibliography (<http://oeb.griffith.ox.ac.uk/>) - lists all publications on Ancient Egypt since 1992.

When searching for the bibliographical details of a book, it also helps to go to online catalogues of research libraries:

- COPAC Home Page University Research Library Catalogue (<http://copac.ac.uk/>) - online catalogue of research libraries in the UK.
  - Oriental Institute Online Archives (<http://oi.uchicago.edu/research/library/>) - catalogue of one of the biggest libraries on the Ancient Near East.
  - WorldCat (Stellenbosch University library > Databases > W >) - includes a large number of library catalogues throughout the world.
-

Electronic journals

- American Schools of Oriental Research Publications (<http://www.asor.org/pubs/index.html>) - with links to the journals Bulletin of the American Schools of Oriental Research, Journal of Cuneiform Studies and Near Eastern Archaeology.
  - Brynn Mawr Classical Review (<http://bmcr.brynmawr.edu/>) - reviews of books on Classics. One may search the website or subscribe to receive reviews by e-mail.
  - Review of Biblical Literature (<http://www.bookreviews.org/default.asp>) - reviews of books on the Hebrew Bible and New Testament.
  - Biblica (<http://www.bsw.org/Biblica>) - full text available from vol. 79 (1998).
  - Biblical Archaeology Society (<http://www.biblicalarchaeology.org/>) - contains links to the semi-scientific journals Archaeology Odyssey, Biblical Archaeology Review and Bible Review.
  - Aramaic Studies (<http://booksandjournals.brillonline.com/content/journals/17455227>) - contains summaries of articles.
-

Electronic museum collections

- British Museum (London) (<http://www.britishmuseum.org/explore/cultures.aspx>) - links to the ancient culture collections, with the possibility to search for online subjects (Compass).
  - Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York) (<http://www.metmuseum.org/>) - links to the ancient culture collections, with the possibility to search for online subjects.
-

Electronic discussion groups

- ANE: Discussion List for the Ancient Near East (<http://oi.uchicago.edu/research/library/ane/>) - moderated discussions, with archive of previous discussions.
- Classics List (USA) - one of the most active discussion groups on any classical topic. Subscribe or search their archives at <http://lsv.uky.edu/archives/classics-l.html>.
- B-Greek - a discussion group for Biblical Greek; also for persons still learning Greek. Subscribe or search their archives at <http://www.ibiblio.org/bgreek/forum/>.
- The Ancient World Online Blog (<http://ancientworldonline.blogspot.com/>).