

IMPORTANT Changes to access and use of FHARGA Langenhoven Student Centre (Neelsie)

13 October 2020

Dear FHARGA user:

If you were granted access to FHARGA.

Daily, before you enter any venue report (display) your healthcheck status obtained from <https://healthcheck.higherhealth.ac.za/login/?next=/> to the covid monitor in room E04 Neelsie.

The FHARGA venues is now open from 8:00 to 22:00 Monday to Friday and from 8:00 to 16:00 on Saturdays.

To comply with Covid 19 regulations severe seating and use, social distancing and sanitation restrictions still apply. Remember the regulations is in place to protect everybody and not inconvenience you.

Because the University is responsible for ensuring that we comply monitors is now available on site in Room E04 of the Neelsie. These monitors will from time to time do spot checks to ensure everybody complies with the rules and regulations.

Only users that applied for access or have a permit is on the electronic access list and can use FHARGA.

You can now apply for access at <HTTPS://FHARGA.sun.ac.za> and request Access rights to FHARGA during lockdown. A terminal to log this request is available at Langenhoven student centre Room E04 Neelsie as well.

Only once you receive confirmation that you are allowed your identity will be added to access control and you will be able to access FHARGA in the Neelsie.

By applying for access, you agree to comply with the following should access be granted.

1. Fill out the daily heathcheck for higher education before you visit the CUA.
2. Fill out the Daily access and presence log before you visit the CUA. It can be completed at Room E04 Neelsie, the office of the covid 19 monitor.
3. Report at the covid 19 monitor on your arrival before you access FHARGA to confirm your healthcheck status.
4. You need to comply with social distancing and sanitation requirements and can only sit at the demarcated seats.
5. You need to comply with any reasonable requests from the monitor that will be on site. That includes request to proof your identity, make available your student card and display your healthcheck status.
6. Please note: If you do not comply with any or all of the conditions above we reserve the right to immediately remove you from the venue and revoke your access to FHARGA.
