

B.ED HONS EDUCATIONAL SUPPORT INFORMATION

Programme description

This programme is a combination of theory and practical application. The current approach is to provide support to address learners' diverse needs through an inclusive educational pedagogy. The focus of the programme is on underlying theories that inform and guide practice. The contents are therefore not prescriptive as learners and contexts differ. Students are equipped at a postgraduate level to become reflective practitioners.

The focus areas of the programme are:

- Interpretive Research
- Adult Learning and Support
- Learning and Cognition
- Learning Challenges
- Learning Support
- Research project

The aim of the programme

This programme aims to prepare students to offer meaningful participation to all learners in inclusive education systems and communities. Furthermore the programme aims to ensure a coherent and critical understanding of the scope and principles underlying education and educational support for learners experiencing barriers to learning. It prepares students to identify diverse and unique learning abilities, learning challenges and accommodates these in adequate and meaningful ways.

Duration and mode of the programme

The programme is presented in a Blended learning and teaching mode. There are at least two, telematics presentation and online communication. The programme can be completed over one year fulltime or two years part-time. Prospective students have to apply before 31 July of the previous year.
