

2020

International year of the nurse & midwife

Powered by: Stellenbosch University and the South African Medical Research Council

THEME | ENGAGED CITIZENSHIP

Acknowledging the International Year of the Nurse and Midwife 2020, and their contribution to combating the COVID-19 pandemic.

- 09:00 – 09:05      Welcome: Prof Julia Blitz
Deputy Dean, Teaching and Learning, Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences, SU
-
- 09:05 – 09:25      Introducing the three African regions: Prof Doreen Kaura
Head of Social Impact, Department of Nursing and Midwifery, SU.
West Africa Region: Prof Lydia Aziato
Dean, School of Nursing and Midwifery, University of Ghana
East Africa Region: Prof Eunice Ndirangu
Dean, School of Nursing and Midwifery, Aga Khan East Africa
South Africa Region: Prof Portia Jordan – Board member FUNDISA
Executive Head, Department of Nursing and Midwifery SU.
-
- 09:25 – 09:40      Global perspective of the campaign: Prof Hester Klopper
Deputy Vice Chancellor, SU: Strategy and Internationalisation
– Welcomes the guests, Minister Nomafrench Mbombo and Prof Glenda Gray
-
- 09:35 – 10:30      Session moderator: Prof Ameena Goga
Unit Director of the HIV Prevention Research Unit, SAMRC.
– Minister Nomafrench Mbombo
Western Cape Provincial Minister of Health
– Prof Glenda Gray
President and CEO SAMRC
-
- 10:30 – 11:00      Q&A
-
- 11:00 – 11:05      Vote of thanks and closing