

NARRATIVE CURRICULUM VITAE: SANTEL DE LANGE

Santel de Lange is a lecturer at the Department of Nursing and Midwifery, Stellenbosch University. Mainly responsible for development of the curriculum for the trauma and emergency post graduate diploma and assisting with undergraduate programs and nursing education post graduate diploma.

She started of her career in nursing upon obtaining her diploma in General Nursing in 2007. From there she continued her studies by completing the Diploma in Trauma and Emergency Nursing in 2010, from there she obtained her BA Nursing Education and Management degree in 2012. She completed her Masters in Clinical field of studies: Emergency Nursing at the University of Pretoria in 2016. She is currently busy with PhD in Nursing with the title evaluating the outcomes of a structured person-centred handover in the emergency department.

Santel has worked her nursing career in private health care with her keen interest and area of speciality in Emergency Nursing. She is also part of the Emergency Nursing Society of South Africa (ENSSA).