Basic SUNLearn Training for Lecturers

Do you need help?

The Centre for Learning Technologies is offering a Basic SUNLearn training session for lecturers/facilitators. This training session will take you through the basic steps of adding course content to your modules, communicating with students and setting up assignments.

For first time users, new lecturers or teaching assistants, this is the perfect way to ensure that you get started on the right track when using SUNLearn to facilitate learning for your students.
