

Clinical Research Manuscript Writing (CRMW) Course 2023

Dates: 23 August – 27 September 2023

Time: 15:00 – 16:30

Platform: Microsoft Teams

Outcome: A draft manuscript

Webinar 1	Webinar 2	Webinar 3	Webinar 4	Webinar 5	Webinar 6
Overview of academic publishing	Planning & pre-writing	Writing the methods section	Writing the results section	Writing the introduction & discussion	Tying up loose ends & getting published
23 August 	29 August 	6 September 	13 September 	20 September 	27 September
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Why publish? The business of publishing Publication steps Choosing a journal 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The writing process Finding your story Reporting guidelines for different studies 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Generic structure Guidelines for each section Tips and traps 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Organising and writing results Visual data display (tables & figures) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Generic structure Developing rationale Tips and traps 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Abstract writing Final revisions Navigating peer review & getting work published

Target audience:

- Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences postgraduate students (particularly MMed candidates), postdoctoral fellows and early-career researchers

Course purpose and outcome:

- Six MS Teams webinars on manuscript writing for clinical research
- Drafting a research manuscript for a primary quantitative research study
- Outlining the publishing process, pitfalls and tips
- Guidance on writing each section of a manuscript

Course facilitators:

Dr Tania Brodovcky

Head: Research Capacity Development and Funding Opportunities
Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences

Dr Rose Richards

Head: Writing Lab
Stellenbosch University Language Centre

Click here to register
by 14 August

Jointly hosted by the Research Capacity Development and Funding Opportunities Office & Registrar Research Support Office