

NOTICE TO ALL STUDENTS (TYGERBERG CAMPUS)

- Students should follow the instructions of Convenors and Invigilators before and during assessment sessions.
- Failure to follow a Convenor/Invigilator's instructions regarding your venue and seat placement is viewed as a disruption.
- No disruptions of assessments will be allowed or tolerated.
- Convenors and/or Invigilators will allocate ALL students to an assessment venue. No students may allocate themselves to a venue.
- Failure of a student to follow ALL assessment instructions issued to students, will result in disciplinary action.

Failure to adhere to the procedures listed above and any other formal instructions of the Convenor or Invigilator will be viewed as a contravention of the "Rules of Student Conduct" as outlined in the Student Disciplinary Code of the University (p.16):

"9.8 A Student shall comply with any reasonable written or oral instruction or request by any member of the University's academic staff, or any other employee or Functionary of the University with authority over the Student, by virtue of their position within the University or specific designation in the relevant context. Willful disregard of such instruction or request constitutes misconduct under this Code."

Queries in this regard may be sent to the Examination Office tygexams@sun.ac.za