

Alice Namuly Blazevic

Alice Namuly Blazevic is a Partner at Katende, Ssempebwa & Company Advocates. She has over 15 years' experience in Commercial and Corporate Transactions, specialising in Projects and Infrastructure Finance, PPP's and the Energy Sector. She also specialises in Technology Law with a keen interest in Artificial Intelligence and the law, Blockchain Technology and the Cryptocurrency industry. She represents several Fintechs and Blockchain Technology based businesses which are reshaping the mode of doing business in Africa and Europe. She has experience in cross boarder transactions where she has advised various large multinational joint ventures within Uganda and across East, South, and West Africa.

Alice is the Chairperson of the Uganda Legal Tech Network. She is the former Vice President of the Uganda Law Society. She serves as the Uganda Country Leader for Legal Business Women For Africa (LABFA), a multi jurisdictional network of women transactional lawyers and corporate leaders in Africa and beyond.

She is an Archbishop Desmond Tutu Leadership Fellow , a Commonwealth Fellow and the University of Oxford Said Business School Fellow. In 2015 she worked with Hogan Lovells LLP UK. She is currently pursuing a course in Artificial Intelligence from the University of Helsinki, Finland.

She is the Founder of the Legal Innovation Hub - Uganda