Seminar Schedule

Venue: The Broom, Rm 2020
Time: 13h00

Enquiries: Dr Tammy Robinson (trobins@sun.ac.za)

October 2018

Tuesday 2\textsuperscript{nd} PhD defence Mlungele Nsikani Barriers to ecosystem restoration after clearing invasive \textit{Acacia} species in the South African fynbos: soil legacy effects, secondary invaders and weedy native species. (Supervisors: Prof. Karen Esler, Dr Mirijam Gaertner)

Wednesday 3\textsuperscript{rd} PhD defence Susan Canavan A transdisciplinary approach in assessing the interaction between history of usage and plant invasions: Bamboo as a case study. (Supervisors: Prof John Wilson, Prof Dave Richardson, Prof Jaco Le Roux)

Wednesday 10\textsuperscript{th} PhD defence Jurene Kemp The influence of pollinators and herbivores on daisy flower colour community assembly patterns, plant species distributions and flower colour evolution in Namaqualand, South Africa. (Supervisors: Prof Allan Ellis)

Thursday 11\textsuperscript{th} Venue: Rm 2025 PhD defence Ingrid Minnaar Species traits as determinants of insect invasiveness: combining statistical and experimental approaches. (Supervisors: Prof Susana Clusella-Trullas, Prof Cang Hui)

Wednesday 17\textsuperscript{th} PhD defence Nikki Phair Vulnerability, resilience and adaptation: the future of the seagrass, \textit{Zostera capensis}. (Supervisors: Prof Sophie von der Heyden)

Wednesday 24\textsuperscript{th} PhD proposal Tandokazi Magangana Phytochemical, biological activity and processing of pomegranate fruit peel (\textit{Punica granatum} L.): bio-prospects for value-addition. (Supervisors: Prof. N.P. Makunga, Prof. U.L. Opara, Dr. A.O. Fawole)

Wednesday 31\textsuperscript{th} MSc defence Dale Abrahams Revisiting chromosomal diversity in Otomys irroratus: meiotic behaviour and mitochondrial divergence