

XIII. INTERNATIONAL BONHOEFFER CONGRESS
STELLENBOSCH, SOUTH AFRICA
19-23 JANUARY 2020

You are cordially invited to the XIII. International Bonhoeffer Congress that will be held from 19–23 January 2020 in Stellenbosch, South Africa on the theme:

How the coming generation is to go on living?
Bonhoeffer and the response to our present crisis and hope.

The Congress will open with a church service on Sunday evening 19 January 2020. The Most Reverend Dr. Thabo Makgoba, Anglican Archbishop of Cape Town will be the preacher. Plenary speakers who will take part in the programme are Wolfgang Huber, Terry Lovat, Nadia Marais, Pumla Goboda-Madikizela, Teddy Sakupapa and Reggie Williams.

Besides the plenary papers and panel contributions, the programme will consist of more than 70 seminar papers. As part of the closing event, John de Gruchy will moderate a panel of theologians on How the coming generation is to go on living?

The congress is hosted by the Faculty of Theology and the Beyers Naudé Centre for Public Theology at Stellenbosch University, in partnership with the Department of Religion and Theology at the University of the Western Cape.

The venue for the congress is the Faculty of Theology, 171 Dorp Street, Stellenbosch, except for the Wednesday morning session (22 January) that will take place at the University of the Western Cape. This will be followed by an excursion to Cape Town, where the congress dinner will also take place.

There are still place for a few post-graduate students working on Bonhoeffer at the Pre-Congress student colloquium at Volmoed, Hermanus. See the website for details.

We look forward to welcoming you in the beautiful Western Cape!
