Process flow: Reappointment of a Chief Director

COUNCIL / RECTORATE HUMAN RESOURCES (HR) LINE MANAGER of the SAC The process for the reappointment of a Chief Director is initiated by the Rector at the Chief Director and enquires whether they wish to Rectorate, at least nine (9) months before the expiry of the term of office of the incumbent of the post. during their current term. The Rector and the line manager must have a discussion with the incumbent after which the Rector, as the chairperson of the SAC for the Human Resources notifies Council via the appointment of a Chief Director, considers the Registrar's Office (Secretariate of Council). reappointment and takes a final decision.