Programme structure

Firstly, you must attend lectures for the coursework component and the first part of the research assignment module. These lectures are presented from the Stellenbosch campus by means of synchronous lectures online or physical face-to-face lectures on campus. There are several short sessions throughout the year, as well as block lectures. Class attendance (whether online or face-to-face) and assignment submission are compulsory and start in the first year, with frequent lectures during February to April and, thereafter, once a month until October. This compulsory class attendance ends with lectures during February to April in the year of the research assignment module.

Secondly, you must complete a research assignment and an article that is publishable in an accredited journal.

You must also attend a writing skills workshop about writing up research.
