

MPhil (Management Coaching)

Admission requirements

- An honours degree, or
- A four-year professional bachelor's degree, or
- A three-year bachelor's degree and a postgraduate diploma.

Please note: Your preceding academic qualification should be at least on NQF Level 8, which means that it should have entailed a research component.

Further requirements

- A minimum of four years' work experience in the field of People Management.
- A comprehensive essay in which you reflect on your work experience and motivate why you should be admitted to the programme.
- Psychometric testing may be required.

Selection

The number of students selected can be influenced by, for example, staff capacity, availability of resources within the School as well as academic merit and University transformation objectives. As staff capacity and resources can fluctuate from year to year, the number of students selected can also differ from year to year. No other criteria over and above those listed under the admission requirements. Should the number of applicants that meet the admission requirements exceed the available capacity of the School, the criteria in the admission requirements will be used to rank the applicants in order of suitability, and to finalise the list of selected applicants.
