

Master of Occupational Therapy (thesis option)

Duration of programme

The programme extends over a minimum of one academic year.

Programme description

This programme choice consists of a thesis only. The thesis contains the results of independent research on a topic you choose in consultation with the head of the Division.

Programme content

Thesis	895(180)
--------	----------

Assessment and examination

- The thesis integrates a comprehensive literature review, data collection and analysis, discussion of results and recommendations.
- The study is presented in a thoroughly conceptualised, well-formulated, logical and coherent document.
- You must obtain a mark of at least 50% to pass the thesis.