

MSc in Medical Virology

Specific admission requirements

- A BScHons degree in a relevant field of study.
- If you have a BTech qualification:
 - you will be considered for admission if you have passed the BTech degree with a minimum final mark of 60%; and
 - then you will be admitted if you pass the BScHons examination in the relevant field of study as a preliminary examination with a minimum examination mark of 60%.

Application procedure and closing date

Apply online at www.maties.com by 30 September of the previous year. Applications for prospective international students close on 31 August.

Duration of programme

The programme extends over a minimum of two years and a maximum of four years. If you do not complete the programme successfully within four years, you have to obtain special permission from the Postgraduate Programme Committee of the Division of Medical Virology to continue with the programme.

Programme description

The programme consists of a 100% research component. The initial research proposal is approved by a divisional research committee and the Health Research Ethics Committee of the Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences. Progress with experimental work is monitored continuously by the supervisor and presented at divisional research meetings.

Programme content

Thesis: Medical Virology	872(180)
--------------------------	----------

Assessment and examination

- You must complete a research project and do an oral examination that are assessed according to University guidelines through a process of internal and external examination.

Enquiries

Programme leader: Dr C de Beer

Tel: 021 938 9453 E-mail: cdeb@sun.ac.za