

BMilHons in Strategic Studies

Admission Requirements

Subject to consultation with the lecturers at the Department of Strategic Studies, one of the following degrees is required:

- a BMil degree, with a final mark of 65% was achieved in the final year of study of Strategic Studies as major; or
- another B degree in an approved related field of study, with a final mark of 65% was achieved in the final year of study.

Duration of Programme

The programme is presented over one year full-time or two years part-time with regular contact sessions between supervisor and student (depending on the availability of lecturers). You must attend all scheduled block modules.

Programme Content

Compulsory modules

Research Methodology (Strategic Studies)	744(30)
Research Assignment: National Security of Southern African States	744(30)

Elective modules

Choose three of the modules (60 credits) from the table below or two of the modules (40 credits) and an approved module (20 credits) from the field of Military History or Political Science.

Future and Cyber_Warfare	744(20)
Contemporary Warfare in Africa	744(20)
SA Defence Policy since 1994	744(20)
Contemporary Military Theory	744(20)
Contemporary Peace Operations	744(20)
The Evolution of Operational Art	744(20)