Projects

TRIAGE TB | project kick-off meeting | 15/11 2019

The EDCTP-funded project TRIAGE-TB had its official kick-off meeting in Cape Town, South Africa on 14-15 November 2019. The aim of the project is to validate in the field a rapid point-of-care triage test for active tuberculosis that can be conducted without the support of a laboratory.

The study is coordinated by Prof. Gerhard Walzl of Stellenbosch University, South Africa.

Nominate candidates for the EDCTP 2020 Prizes !

EDCTP will award four prestigious international prizes dedicated to the promotion of scientific research, improved health and African-European collaboration.

These prizes are presented to outstanding individuals and research teams, especially from sub-Saharan Africa and Europe.

They will be announced at the tenth EDCTP Forum in Mozambique in October 2020.

Nominate candidates before Thursday 16 April 2020 at 17:00 CET.
