

Peripheral Venous Access and Intravenous Line Management for Healthcare Providers

This course will provide the attendees with the knowledge and skills to perform and demonstrate intravenous cannulation accurately, safely and with precaution.

The following topics will be covered:

Anatomy of the arm

Discuss the indications for intravenous cannulation

Identify and select the ideal site and vein for the required infusate

Correct equipment choice

Related asepsis and equipment management

Potential complications and their management

Perform and demonstrate intravenous cannulation accurately, safely and cost effectively

Skills session- Demonstration of correct techniques

Observed practical session under supervision and individual assessment

Participants will be subjected to a written examination with a pass rate of 70% with a formal practical skills assessment

Date: 28 January 2023

Time: 09:00 to 14:00

Venue: Clinical Skills Centre, Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences, Tygerberg

Registration: R2800

Contact Details:

Mariana Steenkamp

marianas@sun.ac.za

021 938 9016