HISTORY

1685

Stellenbosch University's history goes back as far as 1685 when regular schooling began in Stellenbosch.

1859

In this year, higher education in Stellenbosch started with the establishment of the Theological Seminary of the Dutch Reformed Church.

1866

In December 1863, the foundation was laid for the establishment of the Stellenbosch Gymnasium, which became a reality in 1866.

1887

The Victoria College is established as part of Queen Victoria's golden jubilee. From 1897 to 1900, the College was transformed with the building of several new facilities.

1918

On 2 April 1918 Victoria College became Stellenbosch University after a donation of £100 000 by a local benefactor, Jan Marais.
