

YOUNG ALUMNI

PHILIP LOCHNER

Philip Lochner is the founder and Chief Executive Officer of Pedalsure which he launched in 2014. Pedalsure is an insurtech company and to date has insured more than £105 million worth of bikes.

Philip has also previously served as the UK General Manager for Orca Triathlon, was VP of Finance and Operations (North America) for HiFX and Manager at Infrastructure Finance Corporation Limited.

Philip graduated with a BCom Law from SU in 2001 and an MBA in 2012 from the London Business School.

in www.linkedin.com/in/philiplochner/

MATTHEW DE LA HEY

Matthew is a co-founder of and CEO at inploi, a talent attraction technology company founded in London in 2016. He is also the EU director of South African fintech Kastelo, and editor of creating writing platform Ozymandeus.

Matthew graduated from Stellenbosch in 2012 with BAcc (Hons) which he completed as a Mandela Rhodes Scholar. He won a Weidenfeld scholarship to Oxford University in 2013 where he read an MSc in African Studies with research focused on changing agricultural behaviour and land use in the former Transkei. He received an MBA from the Saïd business school in 2015 and worked briefly for a private equity fund investing in agricultural assets across Africa, before starting inploi.

in www.linkedin.com/in/matthew-de-la-hey/