- Prof. Brian Rappert of the University of Exeter in the UK and dr. Chandré Gould of the Institute of Security Studies. They delivered a lecture on 25 February about Biowarfare and the Wouter Basson issue. This visit was the outcome of earlier liaisons that prof. van Niekerk has with both of these colleagues.

- Prof. Joan Hambidge, Director of the School of Languages, for talks about moral language use.
- Adv. André Knoetze of the Johannesburg Chamber of Advocates, who held discussions about aspects of human rights legislation.

The meeting with the director (in December 2014) was at the express request of prof. Weisstub who was very familiar with a number of publications emanating from the Centre and Unit for Bioethics. He extended a special invitation to prof. van Niekerk to address the International Association of Law and Medical Health Conference, to be held in Vienna in July 2015. We are also exploring a workshop on research ethics matters in the course of 2016, co-hosted by the Centre and resulting in a major publication.

He was at the same time appointed as member of the NHREC's committee for the revision of the comprehensive Guidelines for Biomedical Research, which is set to be published in 2015.
- Prof. van Niekerk is chair of the Senate Research Ethics Committee of Stellenbosch University – the policy making body of the University, which also a appoints and accredits members of all the Research Ethics Committees of the University.

Willem Landman, serves as professor extraordinaire in the Centre and Department and renders very value services to the Centre. #### 5.4 Appointments

- 1. Dr Susan Hall was appointed to the full-time position of lecturer in the Department of Philosophy (and therefore, by implication, the Centre for Applied Ethics) from 1 January 2015. She has an outstanding academic track record and is an expert in the field of applied ethics, with special reference to themes in bioethics and environmental ethics. The Centre deeply appreciates her appointment by the Department and looks forward to her wholehearted involvement Centre-activities in future. The extent of her involvement is already apparent from the reports of the Units for Bioethics and for EnvironmentalEthics.
- 2. Dr Minka Woermann, who has done sterling work in managing the Unit for Business Ethiocs and Public Integrity, was deservedly promoted to senior lecture from 1 January 2014.
- 3. Dr. Lyn Horn continues her work as extraordinary senior lecturer in the Philosophy Department and Centre. She contributes to various teaching programmes and delivers exceptionally valuable service in supervising MPhil students in Bioethics, and plays a pivotal role in the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences as chairperson of the Research Ethics Committee of the Humanities a daunting task in view of the volume of work (and level of responsibility) that is associated with it.

6. SPONSORSHIP

Mediclinic has confirmed its generosity towards the Centre by renewing its sponsorship of the Unit for Bioethics for the next two years (R100 000 per year for two years) and has, for 2015, in fact doubled that sponsorship to R200 000, in order to, amongst many other commitments that the Centre has, also ensure the temporary employment of Ms Andrea Palk, who delivers indispensable services as researcher and administrator in the Unit for Bioethics. This sponsorship has been running since 2007, and is highly appreciated by the Centre.

We convey our sincere gratitude to Mediclinic Southern Africa, and specifically ask their representative on the Governing Committee, mr. Martin Rossouw, to convey that gratitude to mr. Koert Pretorius, CEO of Mediclinic Southern Africa and his entire management team and Board of Directors.

5. SERVICE DELIVERY

- 5.1 Prof. van Niekerk has, from September 2013, been appointed as a member of the National Health Research Ethics Council, as well as a member of the Committee for the revision of National Guidelines for Ethical Biomedical Research. These new guidelines have now been approved by the Minister of Health and will be published in the course of 2015. The next task of this committee is to revise the Guidelines for Good Clinical Practice.
- 5.2 Prof. van Niekerk has been appointed as a member of the Biosafety and Biosecurity Committee of the Academy of Science of South Africa (ASSAf), and he is also a member of the panel that is doing a consensus study on the level of biosafety and security in South Africa. This work came to completion in the course of 2014. Prof. van Niekerk solicited the services of ms Andrea Palk to assist him with writing most of the ethics-related chapters of the final report, which has been approved by the ASSAf Council for publication in 2015.

5 OTHER GENERAL ACTIVITIES OF THE UNIT

5.2 Bioethics Discussion Group

A very significant addition to the activities of the Unit in 2014 was the activities and deliberations (since the beginning of 2013) of a discussion group on bioethical issues. This was primarily intended as an intellectual sounding board and think tank of prof. van Niekerk's team of postgraduate students who work in the field. Anybody with an interest in the subject, however, is welcome to attend. The group kicked off with a series of talks on the human enhancement problematic which is currently the main topic of research in the Unit. Meetings are roughly every three weeks for about 90 minutes to two hours at a time. Somebody is asked to make a presentation or read a paper, after which extensive discussion follows. It is hoped that this activity will in future lead to larger conferences and to publications of individuals or the team. The secretariat is very admirably and efficiently handled by ms Andrea Palk.

The meetings, discussants and topics for 2014 were as follows:

Tuesday February 25	The Dis-eases of Secrecy: Project Coast then and now.	Prof Brian Rappert (University of Exeter) & Dr Chandre Gould (Institue for Security Studies)
Wednesday March 26	Identity and discourse: a critical philosophical investigation of the influence of the intellectual self-image of the medical profession on doctor-patient interactions.	Dr Berna Gerber (US)
Wednesday April 9	African Bioethics	Prof Malcolm de Roubaix (US)
Thursday May 8	Research Ethics	Prof Mariana Kruger and Dr Lyn Horne
Thursday May 29	The media and perceptions of patient confidentiality	Dr Chris Verster
Thursday 21 August	Edentualism	Dr Terence Valentine
Thursday 25 September	Biobanking	Dr Ciara Staunton
Thursday 9 October	Ethical issues in treatment of hereditary cancer syndromes	Dr Izak Loftus
Thursday 30 October	Ethical issues surrounding treatment of the Ebola virus	Dr Susan Hall

6 APPOINTMENT

Ms Andrea Palk was appointed as temporary researcher and administrative officer of the Unit for Bioethics in 2014. This was mainly made possible by the generous support of the Mediclinic Southern Africa Corporation. Ms Palk received the honour of, in 2014, winning the Faculty Medal of Arts and Social Sciences for the best MA thesis in the Faculty completed in the course of 2013. She makes an invaluable contribution to the work of the Unit while also pursuing her PhD research at the moment. It is no longer possible to maintain all the activities of the Unit without the kind of support delivered by someone like ms Palk – in addition to her own invaluable research work. Her continued services ought to be pursued at all costs in future.
