

Arnold S de Beer

MA (Journalism), MIJ (International Journalism) PhD (Journalism)
Professor Emeritus

Teaching and research areas: media and society; international journalism; news theory and news flow; qualitative research methods. Founding editor of Ecquid Novi - the SA Journal for Journalism Research. Editorial board member of Journalism Studies; Global Communication Review; International Communication Bulletin; Communicatio; Communicare. Former/present: Chair: African Council on Communication Education - Media & Society Division. Co-founder and president SA Communication Association. Member: Council of the International Association for Media and Communication Research; Appeal Board of the SA Press Ombudsman; SABC Board and Executive Committee; South African National Editor's Forum Council; SA Press Council and Executive Committee. Research director: Media Tenor SA and the Institute for Media Analysis in SA (Imasa). Co-editor with John Merrill of Global Journalism (Allyn & Bacon, 2004). Editor: Mass media - towards the millennium. Some 35 articles, 8 book chapters and 30 conference papers on e.g. news and journalism education on national and international level Previously head of the departments of communication at Free State, Potchefstroom and Rand Afrikaans (part-time). Former director of the Institute for Communication Research (Potchefstroom). Former journalist at Die Transvaler and Die Burger; editor of Potchefstroom News, as well as the Ensiklopedie van die Wêreld. Rated as a South African National Research Foundation Researcher (2003).