

Global Health Webinar Series

DECOLONISING GLOBAL HEALTH
- THE CASE FOR VACCINE EQUITY

11th March 2021, Thursday
3:00 and 4:30 pm (via MS Teams)

Topic	Speaker	Time
Welcome and Introductions	Prof Taryn Young	3:00 PM – 3:10 PM
Prioritizing COVID-19 vaccine allocation in South Africa: ethics and collective responsibility	Prof Keymanthri Moodley	3:10 PM – 3:25 PM
COVID-19 vaccine rollouts in selected African countries: lessons and challenges	Dr Heinrich Cyril Volmink	3:25 PM - 3:40 PM
Bad for your health – the impact of patents on Equity of Access to Health Technologies for COVID-19	Prof Leslie London	3:40 PM - 3:55 PM
Discussion and Questions & Answers	Prof Rene English & Prof Charles Wiysonge	3:55 PM – 4:30 PM

About the Speakers:

Prof Keymanthri Moodley is a Distinguished Professor in the Department of Medicine at Stellenbosch University and Director of the Centre for Medical Ethics & Law. The Centre is one of 13 WHO Collaborating Centres in Bioethics in the world and the first on the African continent.

Dr Heinrich Cyril Volmink is a Public Health Medicine Specialist currently consulting in industry. He is also a board member of OUTA. He previously served as a MP in the National Assembly and a MPL in the Gauteng Provincial Legislature.

Prof Leslie London is a Public Health Medicine Specialist at UCT with an interest in human rights, public health ethics. He is a Steering Committee member of the People's Health Movement in South Africa and convenes its work in SA on Equitable Access to Health Technologies for COVID 19.