

Harry Crossley Foundation Grant Writing Workshop

Workshop Outline

To provide hands-on skills to ensure increased quality of Harry Crossley Foundation grant proposals for submission to the Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences for Harry Crossley Foundation grant funding.

Duration – Half a day, with individual consultations available afterwards

Application

Please consult our website (www.sun.ac.za/RDStraining) to apply online as soon as the application process opens (usually 4 weeks prior to the event).

Venue – Tygerberg campus

Purpose

- Provide information on the application process for a Harry Crossley Foundation grant
- Provide hands-on information and guidance on how to complete a Harry Crossley Foundation grant application
- Provide information on the review process of a Harry Crossley Foundation grant

Target Audience

- FMHS postgraduate students, postdoctoral fellows and newly appointed staff (within 2 years of appointment) busy with an application for a Harry Crossley Foundation grant

Workshop Content

- HCF advertisement, guidelines & Regulations
- General grant writing principles 101
- HCF review process
- HCF application form
 - Completion of HCF application form, step-by-step
 - Completion of HCF budget requirements
 - HCF submission process
- HCF post-award processes & responsibilities

Expected Outcomes

- Understand the application, administrative and review processes of a Harry Crossley Foundation grant
- Complete a Harry Crossley Foundation application form according to the criteria as set out by the Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences
- Complete the budget section adequately
- Feel self-confident to embark on and complete a Harry Crossley Foundation grant application and/or similar funding applications

Training Approach

Participatory and interactive with focus on practical application.
