

Prof Marius Johannes Nel is a professor of New Testament in the Department of Old and New Testament at Stellenbosch University (SU). He obtained the degrees BA, BAHons (Greek - cum laude), BTh (cum laude), MTh (New Testament - cum laude) and DTh at SU between 1988 and 2013. Prof Nel joined the staff of the Faculty of Theology in 2012 and has served as chair of the Department of Old and New Testament as well as of the Programme Committee.

Prof Nel's primary research focus is Matthean ethics, Synoptic studies and biblical hermeneutics, as evidenced by his more than 60 published research outputs and conference presentations on six continents. Yet he is also committed to the ongoing conversation between academia and the church on the interpretation of the New Testament. This commitment is reflected in his recent books, Om Jesus te sien (2022, co-authored with CW Burger) and Reframing - novel metaphors for reimagining the church and the Bible (2023). Marius is a member of the Society of Biblical Literature (SBL) and the International Consultation on Ecclesial Futures (ICEF) and serves as chair of the New Testament Society of Southern Africa as well as assessor of the Dutch Reformed Church in South Africa. He is also co-editor of the academic journal Scriptura and a regular contributor to Die Kerkbode.
