- NB:
1. Written notice of any desired change or addition to this nomination must be submitted to the scheme on a similar form.
 2. In accordance with the rules of the scheme, benefits are paid out on your death to your dependants and/or nominees, depending on the circumstances. In terms of the rules "dependant" means your spouse, someone for whose maintenance you are legally responsible (or would be) as well as someone who is actually dependent on you for maintenance. A child who is no longer dependent on you does not qualify as a "dependant" and must therefore be nominated by you for him/her to be considered for any benefit.
