

Pieter-Jan has lived and worked for most of his life in Stellenbosch. After completing his school education at Paul Roos Gymnasium, he studies at Stellenbosch University and attains his B. Accountancy (Cum Laude) in 1991. The following year he completes his B. Accountancy Honours degree and in 1997 he qualifies as a CA (SA). After completing his articles, he joins LDP in Stellenbosch, where he becomes a partner and still maintains this position after 26 years.

In his professional career he is a long-term strategist and planner for growth results, achievements, profitability and sustainability. He has extensive experience in financing, amalgamations, acquisitions and the selling of entities or business units.

Pieter-Jan is actively involved in the community. At present he serves as the chairperson of the board of Stelumthombo NPC and as vice-chairman of the Het Jan Marais Nationale Fonds, which since its inception, has had a specific association with and has also made contributions to Stellenbosch University.

---

Pieter-Jan woon en werk bykans sy hele lewe lank op Stellenbosch. Nadat hy sy skoolloopbaan aan die Paul Roos Gimnasium voltooi het, studeer hy aan die Universiteit van Stellenbosch en slaag sy B. Rekeningkunde-graad Cum Laude in 1991. Die volgende jaar voltooi hy sy B. Rek Honneurs-graad en in 1997 kwalifiseer hy as GR(SA). Ná voltooiing van sy klerkskap sluit hy by LDP op Stellenbosch aan waar hy in 1998 'n vennoot word en ná 26 jaar steeds is.

In sy beroepslewe is hy 'n langtermyn-strateeg en beplanner vir resultate in groei, prestasie, winsgewendheid en volhoubaarheid. Hy het wye ondervinding met finansiering, samesmeltings, verkrygings en die verkoop van entiteite of sake-eenhede.

Pieter-Jan is aktief betrokke in die gemeenskap. Tans dien hy as voorsitter van die direksie van Stelumthombo NWM en onder-voorsitter van die Het Jan Marais Nationale Fonds wat sedert sy stigting 'n spesifieke verbintenis gehad het met, en deurentyd bydraes lewer tot die Universiteit Stellenbosch.