

GREY WOTER SYSTEM

System Explained

The water from the showers have been treated with hydrogen peroxide to eliminate microbes and bacteria.

The slight purple colouring is the result of the dye used in the sanitising and disinfectant process and is not harmful.

This toilet is flushed by water from our grey water system.

If you experience an uncomfortable smell from the water - please report to your maintenance HC or KDK and help us keep your system healthy.

