

MSc in Food Science

Programme Code

2841011

Specific Admission Requirements

- A four-year BSc in Food Science degree, a three-year BSc Food Science degree with a BScHons in Food Science, or a three-year BSc with Chemistry or Biochemistry on final-year level with an honours degree.
- Supplementary Food Science modules, as prescribed by the Department of Food Science, must be taken if you only qualify for the three-year BSc with Chemistry or Biochemistry on final-year level with an honours degree.
- An average final mark of 60% for the final-year modules.

Duration of Programme

This programme extends over a minimum of one year but may take longer to complete.

Programme Content

You choose your research project for the master's programme in consultation with your supervisor.

Compulsory Module

21210: Food Science	818(180): Master's thesis
---------------------	---------------------------

Assessment and Examination

After completion of the research you must submit a thesis to the satisfaction of the examiners and present a seminar. You will be expected to defend your thesis during this seminar.

Enquiries

Prof GO Sigge

Tel: 021 808 3581

E-mail: gos@sun.ac.za