

BMilHons in Security and Africa Studies

Admission Requirements

Subject to consultation at the lecturers in the School for Security and Africa Studies, the following is required:

- any BMil degree with Political Science (Mil), Military History or Strategic Studies as major, with a final mark of at least 60% in your major in the final year.

Duration of Programme

The programme is presented over one year full-time or two years part-time with regular contact sessions between supervisor and student (depending on the availability of the lecturers). You must attend all scheduled block modules.

Programme Content

Compulsory modules

Research Methodology	741(30)
International Relations Theory	742(20)
South African Political-Military Profile in Africa	743(20)
Research Assignment: National Security of African States	746(30)

Elective modules

Choose one of the approved modules (20 credits) from Military History or Strategic Studies.