

3.1.4. MMil in Strategic Studies

The programme allows for one of two modes of study, both under the guidance of a supervisor.

- Option A:
 - a thesis with prescribed reading in preparation of a research proposal; and
 - an oral examination and submission of an article for publication in an accredited journal; or
 - the presentation of a paper at a subject conference or a graduate seminar.
- Option B:
 - a structured self-study programme rounded off by a thesis.

3.1.4.1. MMil in Strategic Studies (Option A)

Admission Requirements

Subject to consultation with the lecturers at the Department of Strategic Studies, one of the following degrees is required:

- a BMilHons degree in Strategic Studies with a final mark of at least 60% in each subject; or
- another honours degree in an approved related field of study with a final mark of at least 60% in each subject.

Duration of Programme

If you possess a BMilHons degree, you may obtain the MMil degree after one year of full-time or two years of part-time study. If, however, you have another applicable honours degree, you may complete the programme only after two years of full-time study.

Programme Structure

You select a research theme in consultation with your supervisor, who also consults with the subject group. The research proposal should have a definite focus on strategic or security-related matters and, if possible, on Africa.

Programme Contents

A thesis (180 credits) in which you demonstrate the ability to undertake independent, scientifically responsible research.

The thesis must comply with the guidelines of the University.

An oral examination.

Your thesis must be preceded by a literature study leading to a research proposal, which you have presented at a Faculty of Military Science graduate research colloquium.

Publish, or submit for publication, an article on the study theme in a DOE-accredited journal or present a paper at a subject conference or graduate seminar.

3.1.4.2. MMil in Strategic Studies (Option B)

Admission Requirements

Subject to consultation with the lecturers at the Department of Strategic Studies, one of the following

degrees is required:

- an honours degree in Strategic Studies with a final mark of at least 60% in each subject; or
- another honours degree in an approved related field of study with a final mark of at least 60% in each subject.

Duration of Programme

If you possess a BMilHons degree, you may obtain the MMil degree after one year of full-time or two years of part-time study. If, however, you have another applicable honours degree, you may complete the programme only after two years of full-time study.

Programme Structure

If you possess an honours degree, you must complete a capita selecta of three study themes and submit a thesis on the security milieu of Africa.

Please Note:

Depending on your academic background, the Programme Coordinator may allow you to follow post-graduate modules in related fields of study instead of the capita selecta listed below. If you follow these modules at another faculty or institution, you must meet their stipulated requirements.

Programme Contents

Compulsory for all candidates:

- Thesis: a theme that focuses on the African security milieu 14576 871 (90)

Capita selecta* of study themes (for 90 credits):

- upon written request, you have been allowed by Senate (or the Executive Committee acting on Senate's behalf) to register for the MMil programme;
- an approved research curriculum and/or advanced study of at least one year (after having obtained the above-mentioned honours degree) at Stellenbosch University or any other institution approved by Senate; and
- submission of a satisfactory thesis.

General information

1. History and functions of the Faculty

1.1. History

The Military Academy was established on 1 April 1950 under the auspices of the University of Pretoria, as a branch of the SA Military College (now the SA Army College) at Voortrekkerhoogte (now Thaba Tshwane). In 1953, the Military Academy would move to Saldanha, under the trusteeship of Stellenbosch University, from which institution successful candidates would receive a BMil degree. In January 1961, the Academy became a faculty in its own right – the Faculty of Military Science of Stellenbosch University.

1.2. Functions

Stellenbosch University is the custodian of the Faculty of Military Science through a contractual agreement with the South African Department of Defence (DoD). The Faculty is located within the SA Military Academy in Saldanha Bay on the West Coast of South Africa. On our Campus, civilian and uniform members work together and learners are members of SA Army, SA Navy, SA Air Force, SA Military Health Services and members of the broader DoD. We develop the future military leaders of South Africa and our international partners such as Botswana, France, Mozambique and Namibia.

We are the only Faculty of Military Science in South Africa and our Faculty members have the opportunity to develop expert knowledge in their respective academic disciplines. Our academic programmes are fully accredited by the Council for Higher Education and we own an accredited research journal (Scientia Militaria). Our Faculty members are engaged in teaching, conducting security-related research and being involved in community interaction with the DoD, academic institutions and civil society.

The Faculty of Military Science has five academic schools:

- the School for Security and Africa Studies;
- the School for Defence Organisation and Resource Management;
- the School for Human Resource Development;
- the School of Science and Technology; and
- the School for Geo-spatial Studies and Information Systems.

2. Qualifications offered at the Faculty

3. Other services offered by Faculty

3.1. Academic development

- study and career guidance;
- life skills development;
- psychotherapeutic services; and
- academic support services.

3.2. Language service

Informal isiXhosa, isiZulu, SeSotho, French and German courses are available on request to staff and students.
