1. How do I get in contact with the Postgraduate Funding Office (PGFO) staff?

The Postgraduate Funding Office (PGFO) is assisting all students remotely via MS Teams and in person. Please send an email to postgradfunding@sun.ac.za or visit our website here for more information on the funding instruments that we manage.

2. Is there funding for part-time studies at Postgraduate level?

No there is no funding for part-time students at Stellenbosch University postgraduate level.

3. When will my scholarship stipends still be paid for 2022?

Yes, the Postgraduate Office will process all bursary payments as soon as the required documents are submitted per funding instrument. Please check your award letters and note that you must be registered to receive your stipends or living allowances. Students must ensure that their banking details are correctly captured on the University system. Please visit our website and contact the relevant coordinator for assistance.

4. Does the Postgraduate Funding Office offer loans to postgraduate students?

Kindly note that Stellenbosch University does not offer a loan scheme at postgraduate level. You can contact the following website here for more on external loan service providers.

5. Does the Postgraduate Funding Office fund PGCE students?

No, the Postgraduate Funding Office (PGFO) does not fund PGCE students however you can contact our Client Services (info@sun.ac.za 021 808 9111).

6. When should I apply for postgraduate funding opportunities?

You should be applying for funding support in the year prior to your studies for a review and funding decisions to take place. These funding opportunities typically open around May/June every year.

7. I'm an international student do I qualify for funding at Stellenbosch University?

Yes, there are limited bursaries for international students, especially those who do not have a previous degree from a South African institution. Students are advised to read the guidelines on our website www.sun.ac.za/pgo/funding for more information.

8. Can you send me a quotation or invoice for my programme of study?

You can generate a provisional quotation of fees online for the full quotation of fees for the year. Please go to www.maties.com > Fees > Provisional statement of fees (quotation) > Request a more detailed provisional statement of fees (quotation).

For this quotation, you will need to select modules for your specific programme of study which can be found in the University calendars here: <http://www.sun.ac.za/english/faculty/Pages/Calendar.aspx>. Select the correct calendar for your faculty and find your programme in the faculty calendar to select your modules.

Also, see our website for all payment methods and payment dates. Here is the link: <http://www.sun.ac.za/english/maties/Pages/Fees-PaymentOptions.aspx> . Alternatively you may contact the Student Fees Offices at 021 808 4521/4913 or studentaccounts@sun.ac.za

9. I am currently receiving a scholarship from an external funder – what is required from me?

We urge all bursary / scholarship-holders to read and study their signed agreement or scholarship contract document for specific obligations. Progress reports for [most] scholarships (i.e. the National Research Foundation) will still be required.

10. Bursaries not appearing on MySUN portal for students?

When bursaries don't appear on the MySUN portal for a particular student, they are not eligible or qualify for it based on academic and financial reasons. Only bursaries for which the student is eligible are visible and can be applied.

11. Requests for academic records?

Unfortunately, our office is unable to assist. Please contact Mr Samuel de Beer (sdb@sun.ac.za) for assistance pertaining to your request below.

12. How do I download a fee estimate for my study programme?

The study can be found on the Maties website here under the Fees heading.

A provisional quotation can be done online, by clicking on the following link: <https://web-apps.sun.ac.za/student-fees-estimate/#/home>. Should you encounter difficulties, please contact Mr Sean Davidse seand@sun.ac.za (Division: Student Fees).

13. Do the PGFO still award Merit Bursaries at the postgraduate level?

We currently don't administer or provide merit bursaries for our postgraduate students. The SU Postgraduate Scholarship Programme considers the academic performance of applications. All prospective and current students are urged to apply for this programme. More information on www.sun.ac.za/pgo/funding

14. I am receiving an NRF Honours Scholarship, and I need some assistance.

Please send an email to Mrs Tammy Abrahams (tammya@sun.ac.za) for assistance.

15. When will the NRF Outcomes be available for Masters and Doctoral (General, TWAS, Grant-holder linked and Extension) applicants?

The NRF has made an undertaking to announce outcomes before the end of December of each year. The NRF outcomes will be emailed to all applicants by the Designated Authority (DA) from Stellenbosch University and will also be published on the NRF's website:
<https://www.nrf.ac.za/nrf-for-post-graduate-students/bursaries-scholarships/application-outcomes/>

16. When will I receive the NRF Outcome letter and the scholarship Conditions of Grant?

The email with the application outcomes will include instructions on where to obtain and download the NRF Outcome Letter and Conditions of Grant

17. How do I accept the NRF scholarship?

The Postgraduate Funding Office will share a guideline document with Successful applicants, explaining how to accept the award, when the stipends will be paid, etc.

18. Can I accept the NRF scholarship if I am not registered for the degree as per my NRF application?

No. You must officially register for the degree as per the NRF application. If you decide to enroll for a different degree, then you would need to submit a project-change letter of motivation (endorsed by your prospective supervisor) to betina@sun.ac.za

PLEASE NOTE:

- Any changes must be communicated to the NRF via the Postgraduate Funding Office.
- Students that are awarded funds linked to the Grantholder linked project of the supervisor cannot change without prior consultation with the Grantholder/supervisor.

- 19. I was awarded the NRF scholarship for Masters study and applied with my final year undergraduate degree average. I have completed my Honours degree and obtained below 65%; can I accept the NRF scholarship?

No. The university is required to verify the mark obtained in the previous degree. If an academic mark of 65% was not obtained, the applicant cannot accept the scholarship.

- 20. I was awarded the NRF scholarship for Doctoral study and applied with my Honours degree average. I have completed my Masters degree and obtained below 65%; can I accept the NRF scholarship?

No. The university is required to verify the mark obtained in the previous degree. If an academic mark of 65% or above was not obtained, the applicant cannot accept the scholarship.

- 21. I was awarded the NRF PCS scholarship based on my academic mark of my previous degree (65-74%), but I have obtained my updated results and I obtained more than 75%. Can I be considered for the FCS?

Yes, if a student was awarded PCS but is eligible for FCS, proof of academic merit (>75% for the previous degree) as well as a formal request for reconsideration must be submitted to the NRF via the institutional research office (betina@sun.ac.za).

- 22. I was awarded the NRF PCS scholarship, but I applied to be considered under Financial need as I am/was a NSFAS or ISFAP recipient. Can I be considered for the FCS scholarship?

Yes, if a student was awarded PCS but is eligible for FCS, proof of NSFAS funding or confirmation of financial need by ISFAP/NSFAS as well as a formal request for reconsideration must be submitted to the NRF via the institutional research office (betina@sun.ac.za). Submission of the documentation does not guarantee an FCS award as this is subject to the availability of funds.

- 23. I cannot accept the NRF scholarship for my Masters or Doctoral study as my previous degree is incomplete. Can my scholarship be deferred?

Yes, an award can be deferred to the second semester of the year of award. The student will have to write a formal letter, along with a supporting recommendation of the supervisor to the NRF requesting such a deferment with an explanation of why the deferment is required. This letter should be submitted to the DA of the university. Note: Deferments to the next year are not allowed.

- 24. Do I have to pay registration fees?

No. You may use the NRF Outcome Letter as proof of bursary in order to register.

- 25. I have been awarded the NRF scholarship, but my project has changed, my supervisor has changed and I need to transfer my scholarship from another institution.

PLEASE NOTE: Students that are awarded funds linked to the Grantholder linked project of the supervisor cannot change without prior consultation with the Grantholder/supervisor.

Please see the required documentation below for the various change scenarios:

- a letter of request to the NRF from the student requesting a change in institution, supervisor and project indicating the reasons thereof,
- a letter of release from the initial supervisor,

- and a letter from the new supervisor supporting the transfer request and that the supervisor will be accepting responsibility to supervise the student until the completion of the project including the expected completion date.
- Proof of registration for the current year

New project information:

- Problem Statement
- Aims and Objectives
- Methodology and Proposed Research Plan
- Anticipated Outputs
- Potential Impact
- Alignment to National Imperatives

26. Acknowledgment of NRF funding support on my thesis, publications, poster presentations, etc.

The scholarship-holder will acknowledge the financial assistance of the NRF as follows on the title page of the mini-thesis/dissertation as well as in all papers and publications that emanate from the study:

The financial assistance of the National Research Foundation (NRF) towards this research is hereby acknowledged. Opinions expressed and conclusions arrived at, are those of the author and are not necessarily to be attributed to the NRF.

Note: If statements concerning the research are made to the media, it should be stated explicitly that the scholarship-holder initiated the research and that it should under no circumstances be regarded as research done on behalf of or commissioned by the NRF.

27. What is the duration of NRF support?

The period of support is calculated from the first date of registration of the postgraduate degree regardless of the NRF funding period. See table below:

Postgraduate Level	Years of support for Full-time studies
Masters	2 years
Doctoral	3 years
Masters upgrade to Doctoral	4 years
Extension Support for Masters and Doctoral	6 or 12 months

28. Can I hold other bursaries with the NRF Full Cost of Study (FCS) scholarship?

Students are allowed to receive top-ups from any other source of funding to the university maxima, however the NRF Scholarship cannot be held with a Full Cost scholarship from another Government source. Please refer to clause 18.1 in the CoG.

Master's R 250,000.00

PhD R 300,000.00

29. Am I required to submit a NRF Progress report?

Yes. You are required to submit 2 progress reports per year (Submission deadlines: usually first week in September and first week in February of the following year).

PLEASE NOTE: Failure to submit a progress report on time will result in the cancellation of the Scholarship for the subsequent years and the Grant-holder will not be eligible to reapply for funding at the same postgraduate level and for the next level of study. Your supervisor is also required to recommend whether

30. Can I receive an advance of my NRF funding?

Continuing students: As the NRF approval of the annual progress report is required, scholarship funding can only be advanced after the report has been submitted by you as follows:

- completed with sufficient detail;
- proof of registration for 2023 attached;
- recommended for further support by your supervisor; and
- approved by the NRF.

So, the sooner you submit with the required documents, the sooner the report can be approved, and the sooner the stipend can be advanced.

New NRF students: You need to be registered for the degree as per your NRF application, and have submitted the Acceptance of Conditions agreement along with the required documents. Please refer to the NRF payment guideline document.

31. If I am eligible for the renewal of the funding for the next year, how do I apply for the renewal of the scholarship?

You are required to submit an annual report which opens at the end of November, annually (Submission deadline: usually closes in first week in February of the following year).
