INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the Postgraduate Office's Funding Booklet! This booklet contains the latest information on postgraduate student funding at Stellenbosch University.

We are aware of the changing realities facing postgraduate students when it comes to funding. It is therefore even more important that you apply timeously for any available funding. This booklet distinguishes between funding administered internally (i.e., structures within Stellenbosch University like the Postgraduate Office) funding administered independently or via external funding (i.e., bursaries from external companies or organisations).

Although this booklet contains information on all University administered bursaries for postgraduate students to undertake studies at Stellenbosch University (prospective and currently enrolled students), it is by no means an exhaustive list of all funding opportunities available. For bursaries managed outside the University, students should engage in their own research and contact funding organisations independently. More information on other sources of funding as well as external resources can be found at the end of the booklet.

MEET THE TEAM

The Postgraduate Funding team deals with a range of internal, external, private, company and statutory funding instruments. The team is also responsible for administering all departmental bursaries via all of our 10 faculties to all postgraduate scholarship recipients.

BEFORE YOU GET STARTED

There are a few things that you need to know that will make your search, application, and scholarship acceptance much easier and save you some much time:

When to apply

Missing a deadline can mean that you will be unsuccessful, and this often happens when you wait for the outcome of your admission to the degree programme before applying for scholarship funding. Apply during the year preceding your registration. For instance, if you are going to be studying as a first year Master's student in 2022, then you must apply for funding during 2021. Tip: Applications normally start opening in April, so set those Google alerts as soon as possible.

Where to start

Start with a wide search and then narrow it down. Of course you must apply for our institutional funding opportunities, however, this should not be the only place that you apply. You must apply for as many external scholarships as you can.

- Start with a search on www.open4research.eu/stellenbosch and set up a Google alert.
- Visit various repositories and scholarship websites online; use them to set up mailing alerts or to join their mailing lists. This will bring all the information straight to your mobile device. It is definitely better to work smarter than harder! Thank us later.
- Note that the National Research Foundation, the Council for Scientific and Industrial Research, Medical Research Council, Agricultural Research Council, National Institute for Humanities and Social Sciences, etc., are statutory bodies which offer scholarships to postgraduate students in various fields and research areas.

If you do not apply, then you have 100% chance of not receiving funding support.

STATUTORY FUNDING

NATIONAL RESEARCH FOUNDATION

The National Research Foundation (NRF) is the main funder of postgraduate studies in South Africa. The NRF offers partial and full-cost scholarships to Honours, Master's and Doctoral students. Applications are to be completed online at https://nrfsubmission.nrf.ac.za.

General Scholarships

The National Research Foundation invites all 2022 postgraduate students full-time students not in salaried employment (contractual or permanent) while studying, to apply for funding support. You should apply for this funding opportunity even if you are not sure if you are going to be offered admission to your chosen degree programme.

The NRF minimum academic requirement for postgraduate funding is 65%. Applicants for Honours, Master's and Doctoral funding must be 28, 30 and 32 years of age or younger respectively in the year of application. Successful applicants will be funded either at Full Cost Study (FCS) or Partial Cost of Study (PCS). The FCS funding will be awarded to South African citizens and permanent residents only, who are either financially needy (i.e., those whose combined household family income is less or equal to R350 000 per annum), living with a disability or exceptional academic achievers. The PCS funding will be awarded to 5% of international students including South African citizens and permanent residents only academic achievers for the NRF scholarship funding criteria.

INSTITUTIONAL BURSARY

POSTGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMME (PSP)

A faculty-led collaborative scholarship programme which aims to support exceptional academic performers and students with financial need. The goal of this programme is to enhance the throughput of postgraduate students at SU from Honours to Doctoral level, with a strong emphasis on research.

Criteria

- Each faculty determines its academic requirement(s); typically a minimum of 65% average in your previous degree (or your major) is required.
- Students must intend to register for full-time studies (no part-time programmes are supported).
- Honours, Master's and Doctoral degrees are supported (excluding postgraduate diploma's, certificates or advanced bachelors degrees).
- Applicants may not be employed for more than 20 hours per week.
- Focus on further developing research excellence at our institution.

Scholarship Values

- Scholarships vary depending on availability of funding.
- Partial and full scholarships are available based on academic performance/financial need.
- Estimate values: around R50 000 R150 000.

Timelines

Scholarships normally opens around the end of September and outcomes are available in early January of the following year.

www.sun.ac.za/pgo/funding

You might be required to submit proof of application to Stellenbosch University for admission to the relevant degree programme. You will also be requested to submit a summary of your research proposal and supporting letters from your intended supervisor. We received over 7000 applications during the 2020/21 scholarship cycle and it is therefore essential that you comply with the requirements and submit a complete application package.

TRAVEL GRANTS

PGO OVERSEAS CONFERENCE GRANT (OCG)

The PGO Overseas Conference Grant (OCG) is a supplementary award to attend an international conference outside of South Africa to present a paper or poster. Due to COVID-19 disruptions, applicants can also apply to take place in virtual conferences. NB only valid costs will be covered.

Timelines

- Closing date 1 December of the prior year for attendance taking place between January April following year.
- Closing date 1 March for attendance taking place between May-August.
- Closing date 1 July for September December.

Criteria

- For full-time registered PhD students in their 3rd year. A full-time student is classified as one who works for remuneration for less than 15 hours per week (if at all) over a period of 10 months of a given calendar year.
- The support should supplement grants provided by other sources (e.g. Dean's fund), as this award should not exceed 50% of the total budget to a maximum of R15, 000.
- The applicant should submit proof of the acceptance of the presentation by the conference organizers.
- An applicant will only be eligible for a grant once during his/her postgraduate studies.
- Preference will be given to:
 - Applicants with no funding from other grant schemes (e.g., Focus Areas, Thuthuka, capacity development, industrial contracts).
 - Applicants invited to deliver oral presentations.
 - Applicants who have not attended other international conferences abroad during the past two years.

Application procedure

- A scanned version of the application form with signatures and the required CV must be submitted electronically to Nugent Lewis (nugent@sun.ac.za).
- Only applications for the relevant award cycle will be considered (see dates of the award cycles and corresponding closing dates on the application form).
- The applicant must ensure that the application form is complete, with all the required documents attached. Incomplete applications will not be considered.
- Please note that the awards are made on a competitive basis and that limited funding is available.

Application forms can be downloaded from: www.sun.ac.za/pgo/funding
